HOW DO THE BOATS WORK?

Yachts sleep 8 to 10 people in 4 to 5 double cabins (2 people per cabin), plus your skipper. If passengers do not want shared sleeping facilities, there are options to under-occupy to avoid this.

Do guest need to know how to sail? Absolutely not!

You guys are there to be chauffeur driven around Croatia or Greece. Of course if you are into GPS, nautical charts and all of that stuff, it's there for you to have a gander!

YOUR BOAT

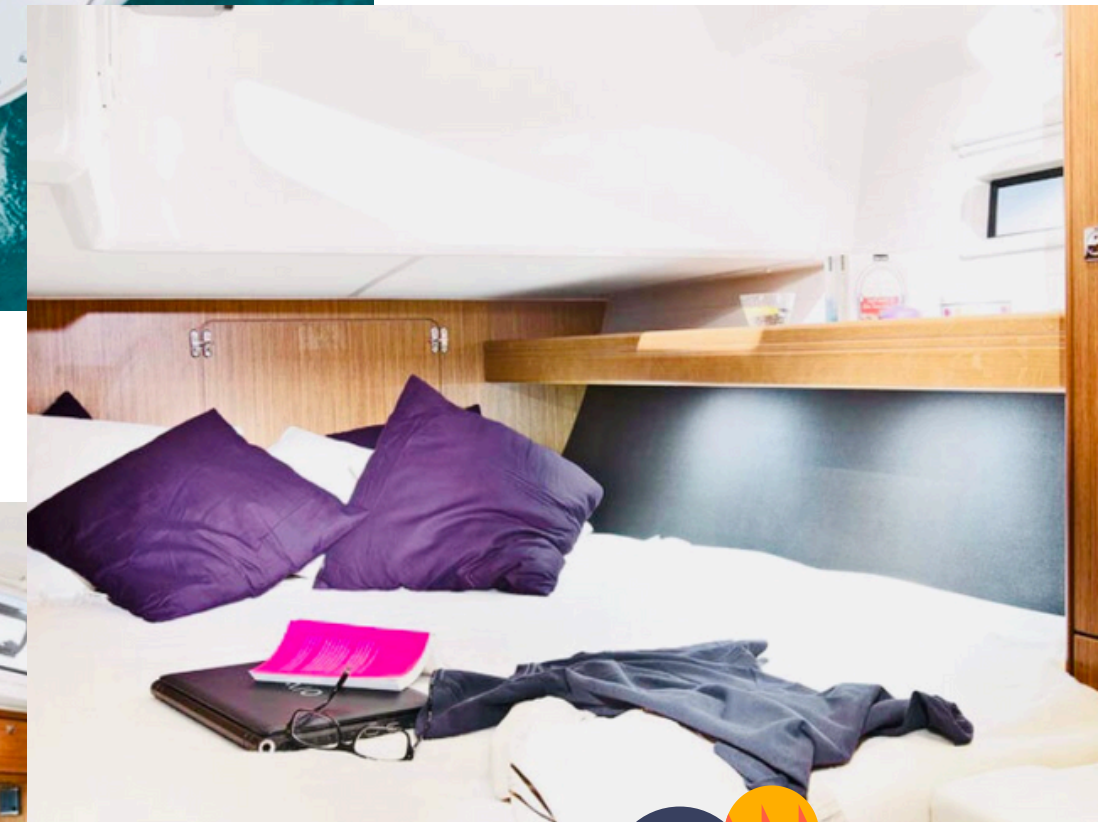

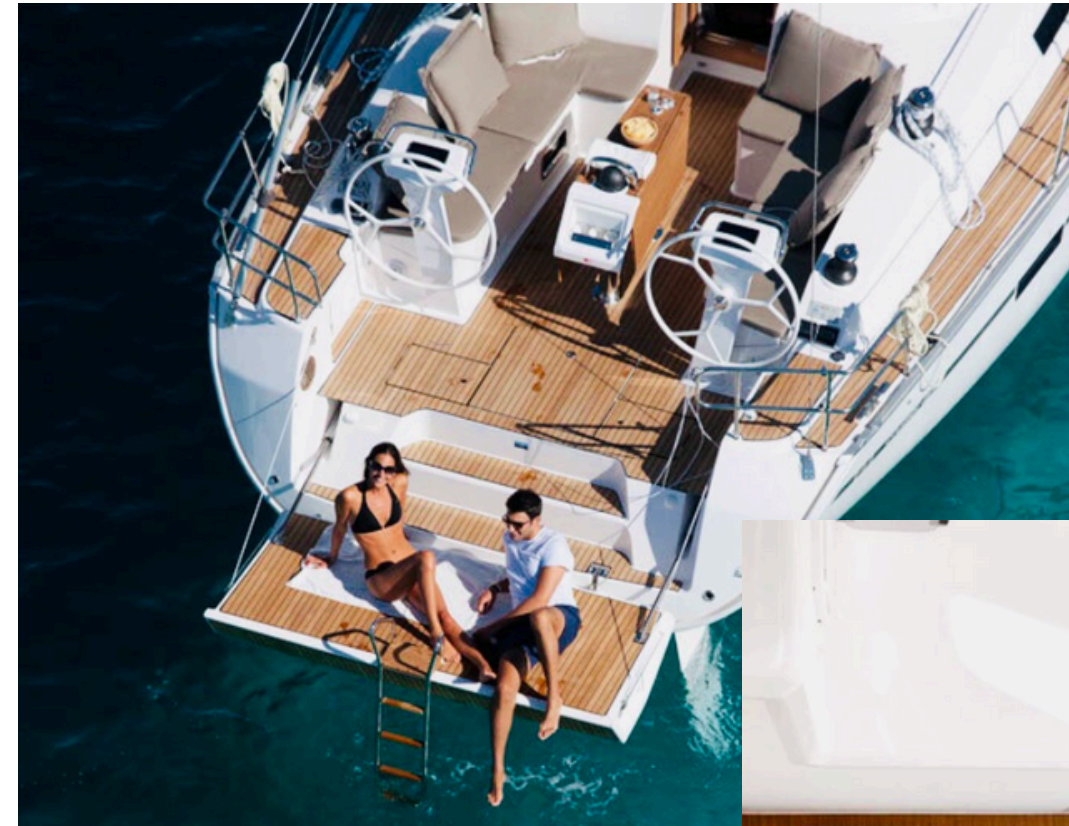

THE PREMIUM

The main difference with the premium boats is the age and the extra space, more sunbathing areas and more spacious cabins.
(8-10 passengers + skipper)

- Larger cabins
- Swim platform
- Aircon upgrade
- Onboard sounds
- Tender
- Sunbathe deck

from £689
per person

Spend the day dancing away with your boating besties on your own floating home with a banging onboard soundtrack and your cold beers supplying the good vibes. Enjoy, as your skipper takes you to your next stop, Supetar, just a couple of hours across the bay. Moor up and head to join the rest of the crew at the beach bar welcome party.

Then join the rest of the flotilla as we head to an epic beach club for the infamous White Party and a night you could quite possibly forget.

Wednesday

Raft party

Treat yourself to breakfast al fresco on the medieval streets of Bol, then sail away to our favourite hidden bay past islands and landscapes so beautiful you'd swear you'd hopped into Mamma Mia. Arrive mid afternoon and join the tunnel raft, creating the ultimate floating dance floor. Expect floaties, and some flamingling. As the darkness comes allow yourself to be mesmerised by the speckled starry night skies of the Adriatic ocean.

Thursday

Friday

Back to base

Sleep in and rest your (sore but happy) heads, whilst we return to base on Friday afternoon to prepare to check-out and then depart. Get ready to head back home with the knowledge you have made friends for life. Cue the mopey playlist for the flight home. Argue with your friends about which route you'll do next year.

We'll set sail for the island of Ermioni, sat atop a peninsula boasting the most stunning views for miles around. We'll be heading to Millenium Bar for a night full of mischief, dancing until the wee hours of the morning.

Wednesday

We'll anchor drop together in a secluded natural bay of an uninhabited island where only mountain goats roam the shore. We'll be making a raft, creating the ultimate floating dance floor. Expect floaties, big tunes and some flamingling. As the darkness comes allow yourself to be mesmerised by the speckled starry night skies of the Adriatic ocean.
